

JVDA 2009 Event Surpasses Inaugural Championships

LEXINGTON, KY– (June 19, 2009) - The JVDA Tournament Committee announced today that the 2009 Tournament entries has exceeded 500 teams for this year's event, an increase of 30 teams over last year's event.

The excitement is building for this year's event with both the 18 Open and the 17 Open Finals being played in the famous Freedom Hall on June 29th. Plans are moving forward to make the 18 Open Finals a record setting attendance event for a junior volleyball match. Local media and the host city are working in support of both the tournament and of this record setting effort for Junior Volleyball.

"We are looking forward to some incredible competition over the four and a half days of the event" sites John Sample, JVDA President. "It is exciting to see the list of teams from all over the country attending our year end event. We continue to work on keeping costs down while providing an exciting event worthy of the end of a hard fought year for junior teams."
