

Jenny has been involved in volleyball since she co-founded Milwaukee Sting VBC in 1989 serving as director, head coach and board member through today. She served as Operations Director and then Executive Director of Badger Region Volleyball Association from 1998-2010. During that time Jenny worked with USAV as a Master Impact Clinician, Arbitrator and Associate VP of Ethics and Eligibility for the YJOV. She is passionate about junior volleyball and sees the JVA as a vehicle to improve the junior club experience for club directors, coaches and the club member families.
