

JVDA Launches Texas Power League Series in 2010

LEXINGTON, Ky. (May 29, 2009) – Plans are progressing for the newly formed Texas Power League beginning in 2010 with a January, February and March date. The dates and locations are being finalized, but current plans are to have a stop in Dallas, Austin and Houston in the series beginning in January 2010.

“We are very excited about being involved in the JVDA Power League Series”, said John Sample, director of the Texas Advantage Volleyball located in Fort Worth, Texas. “We fully support the JVDA plan for competitive national league development around the country and want to provide a format in Texas that can be incredibly competitive on day one for every level of team.”

The ability to drive to competitive tournaments and play the caliber of teams that Texas has to offer will continue the JVDA goals of reduced cost and maximum competition for junior volleyball.

Watch for additional information on the JVDA Web site, www.jvda.org in the next two months as progress is made towards finalizing locations and dates as well as formats.
