Seminar Title: AVCA Convention 101: What Every First-Time Attendee Needs to Know

Speaker(s): Chuck Rey, Brian Swenty

Are you attending the AVCA Convention for the first-time? If so, this is the session for you! In this presentation, we will share insights on the must attend convention events and activities, discuss the various networking opportunities available throughout the week, offer tips on how to use your time most effectively and much more! In addition, there will be time at the end of the presentation to meet with other first-time attendees and even some well-known coaches at the First-Time Attendees Reception, immediately following the presentation.

Learning Objectives:
- Expectations of the Convention
- Things to do and avoid doing at the Convention
- Networking with the 2017 AVCA Class

Key Points:
- Faces in the crowd
  - An interactive presentation recognizing members of the AVCA and volleyball community.
- New attendees are extremely valuable to the AVCA
  - Fresh approaches, new ideas, and different backgrounds stimulate the growth of the AVCA and volleyball.
- How to Maximize the Convention Experience
  - AVCA Program
  - Social Events
  - Professional Development and Leadership Events
  - AVCA Volleyball Marketplace
  - Educational Seminars
  - NCAA Championship Matches

Conclusion:
- The Value of the AVCA Convention Experience
  - Networking
    - Coaches and players at the Convention
    - The 2017 AVCA Class