What made you decide to get into coaching volleyball?

First and foremost, I would like to thank our Lord and savior Jesus Christ! Coaching volleyball was brought to me by God to inspire all players and athletes to be able to learn, grow, and pass it on to the next generation after them! Volleyball stuck out to me the most because of how much of a team dependent sport it is, which is the type of sports that I love being around! I've played football (professionally), basketball, and volleyball in college, and volleyball is the only sport that no player can say that they truly did it alone!

What are your career goals in the sport?

My career goals are to teach and train at the highest levels that God allows me to go! I love giving back to our future leaders!

Which coaches have influenced you the most?

Savannah Battle, Ali Vialdores, Chip Smith, Penny Lucas-White, Charita Stubbs, Katie Schumacher-Cawley, John Speraw, Karch Kiraly, Dain Blanton, Dan Fisher, Tim Walker, Joshua Eckert-Rivera, Larry Wrather, Tanielu Mose, & Andrew McAllister!

What do you enjoy most about your coaching job?

I enjoy watching the daily progression of the athletes that I am blessed to teach and train! It makes me feel great that what I am doing is positively impacting not only their physical and mental skills, but also their lives outside of volleyball as well!
