What made you decide to get into coaching volleyball?

My love to give back to the youth and teach them the game of volleyball.

What are your career goals in the sport?

My career goals consist of becoming an assistant coach on a collegiate volleyball team, continuing to coach club volleyball and one day winning club coach of the year for an age division.

Which coaches have influenced you the most?

The coaches that have influenced me the most have been Nick Saban, Pat Summit, my mom and my current director Kacie Street. Each has taught me an important lesson in coaching. Coach Saban taught me it's the right action, not just the results and to have the humility to seek advice from rivals.

Coach Pat taught me to handle success like you handle failure, and Kacie Street taught me that it's okay and sometimes necessary to be and show vulnerability to your players.

What do you enjoy most about your coaching job?

I enjoy seeing the progress and the change that the players make from the beginning of the season to the end of the season in their skills but most importantly I enjoy building friendships that last a lifetime.
