What made you decide to get into coaching volleyball?

Senior year of high school I didn't have any plans on playing in college. Because of the love and passion I have for the sport I asked my high school coach if I could come back after I graduated to coach. Without hesitation she said yes. A year into coaching I left to play college volleyball. After playing I started coaching again and have been coaching ever since then.

What are your career goals in the sport?

To eventually transition into an assistant coaching role at the collegiate level and help that team compete and win a conference championship and potentially a NCAA championship.

Which coaches have influenced you the most?

Tyrece Battle, Barbara Berry, Sandy Rabun, and Fred Howell

What do you enjoy most about your coaching job?

I enjoy being around the athletes, helping and watching them grow as players and young adults. I love seeing and hearing about all their accomplishments.
